

Mary E. Corrado
President & CEO

Mary E. Corrado joined the American Society of Employers in January 1990 and held several positions before being appointed President and CEO in December 2002.

Corrado has more than 15 years of experience in association management and has delivered numerous presentations on various human resource topics, such as compensation and benefits, employee development and employee relations. She also is President and a trustee of the ASE Educational Foundation and is on the board of the ASE-affiliated HR Management Group.

Corrado was selected as an Emerging Business Leader by the Detroit Regional Chamber. She also received the Emerging New Leader Award from the Michigan Society of Association Executives in 2003. In 2002 she was named one of the top 40 under 40 executives by Crain's Detroit Business magazine.

Corrado is a Certified Compensation Professional, a Certified Management Assessor, a volunteer for the Detroit Executive Services Corp., and a mentor for the Stay The Course mentoring program. She was elected Co-Chair of the U.S. Department of Education State Clusters Project, and sits on the National Advisory Committee. In addition, she sat on the advisory committee for Henry Ford Community College's M-TEC.

Corrado is a member of the Metropolitan Detroit Board of the YMCA, serving on its Executive Committee and chairing its HR Committee. She sits on the National Association of Manufacturers Board of Directors, and was elected to the Executive Committee of the Employer Association Group in 2003, and became its Chairman in 2008 and to the Skyline Club Board of Governors in 2004 where she is Chair of the Nominating Committee.

Corrado serves on the board of directors of the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber, and the Michigan Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Operations Committee. She was elected to the board of the Michigan Society of Association Executives in 2006.

Corrado received her MBA from the University of Michigan in 2007 and her bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1990.
