

George E. Brown
Vice President, Member Services

George Brown joined the American Society of Employers in February 2002 as director of ClickonCareers.com – manufacturing, where he was accountable for developing, implementing, marketing and managing the manufacturing segment of the ClickonCareers.com website.

In 2004 Brown was promoted to director, HR research and government affairs. The HR research staff receives and addresses member contacts involving a myriad of human resources management issues and concerns. ASE's research staff responds to approximately 250 contacts per month regarding employment law, salary and benefit survey data, job descriptions, human resources policies and procedures, governmental issues, and employment practices.

In February of 2005, the board of directors named Brown an officer and vice president of the association. In his current position as vice president, member services – Brown is responsible for membership development, membership services, and the regional ASE offices.

Before joining ASE, Brown worked in the food service industry for more than 20 years, holding positions as store manager, director of training and development, VP of marketing and VP of human resources with Glen's Markets in Gaylord, Michigan. Brown served on the executive committee and board of directors for Glen's Markets during his tenure. He also spent four years on the Retail Advisory Board of Spartan Stores, Inc., a food wholesaler based in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Upon returning to the Detroit area, Brown joined Paul Inman Associates, a regional food broker with offices in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky as senior VP of human resources.

Brown holds a bachelor of administration in general business from Michigan State University. He and his wife and two sons reside in Farmington Hills, Michigan.

