

Eric Brown
Associate Survey Analyst

Eric Brown currently works in ASE's Compensation and Benefits Survey Department as an Associate Survey Analyst. Eric creates, compiles and analyzes all of ASE surveys. In addition to Eric's survey work, he responds to member requests pertaining to survey and salary information, and he authors articles for the ASE's newsletter, everythingpeople.™ This Week!, and monthly magazine, everythingpeople.™

Before joining ASE, Eric worked in customer service for various local businesses. He joined ASE in October 2007 as a Survey Department intern. At the end of his internship he became Print Shop Coordinator and then handled Accounts Payable until he rejoined the Survey department in November 2010 to take on his current role.

Eric holds a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration from Wayne State University.
