

#9: Attendance Management within the Law (NB)

In this session attendees will learn the nuts and bolts of attendance management. They will find out where the legal land mines are, as well as how to document absence-related discipline and communicate this basically negative information to the employee. They will come away with the tools and the confidence they need to manage this issue and regain control of even the thorniest absenteeism problems.

□ Jacquelyn Schulte, PLC